

THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL TREASURES HIDING IN SOUTH AFRICA CAN THIS ANCIENT CIVILIZATION BE THE CRUCIBLE WHERE HOMO SAPIENS EVOLVED?

From Wikipedia

In the field of human genetics, Mitochondrial Eve, who is estimated to have lived approximately 190,000–200,000 years ago, refers to the matrilineal most recent common ancestor (MRCA) of all currently living modern humans. In other words, she was the most recent woman from whom all living humans today descend, on their mother's side, and through the mothers of those mothers, and so on, back until all lines converge on one person. Because all mitochondrial DNA (mtDNA) generally is passed from mother to offspring without recombination, all mtDNA in every living person is directly descended from hers by definition, differing only by the mutations that over generations have occurred in the germ cell mtDNA since the conception of the original "Mitochondrial Eve".

The Boskop Homo capensis skull was found between Ka and LOd. There is evidence of a past civilization in South Africa more than 75,000 years old (Adams Calendar, Temples of the African Gods, By Michael Tellinger and Johan Hein), and there is evidence that Big Brain Homo capensis, estimated average IQ 149, was dominant over Homo sapiens in this region. Big Brain had an elaborate tomb; Homo sapiens was casually interred (Big Brain by Gary Lynch and Richard Granger).

Below is a map showing the location of Boskop South Africa, the area of the discovery of the Boskop man: Homo capensis, brain 30% larger than ours.

Below is the location of Adams Calendar and the remains of a huge ancient civilization described by Michael Tellinger in Temples of the African Gods. The Books are beautiful, however extraterrestrial origin of this ancient civilization is improbable.

Below are examples of the stone structures found in great abundance in the region west (to the left) of Badplaas on the map above. Tellingier has speculated that these stone structures are some form of energy creating devices that extraterrestrials may have built. They are constructed of rough stones and do not appear to be high tech.

Michael Tellingner has performed a very valuable service in studying and photographing this region and his book Temples of the African Gods is a beautiful book. <http://www.viewzone.com/adamscalendar.html> -

To see the number and scope of these ruins, I suggest that you use google-earth and start with the following coordinates:

Carolina -- 25 55' 53.28" S / 30 16' 13.13" E
Badplaas -- 25 47' 33.45" S / 30 40' 38.76" E
Waterval -- 25 38' 07.82" S / 30 21' 18.79" E
Machadodorp -- 25 39' 22.42" S / 30 17' 03.25" E

Then perform a low flying search inside the area formed by this rectangle. Simply Amazing!

I would like to debate Michael about the origins of this civilization. I propose the alternate theory that this Southern Africa Civilization was built by large brain hominids that regarded Homo sapiens as chattel. These large brain hominids had/have powerful brains, mapped the entire earth during the Ice Age, and established a worldwide civilization. They seem to have been very left brained, mathematically capable, and knowledgeable about astronomy. Pyramids seem to be primarily astronomical observatories used for star locations and therefore time (Crichton E.M. Miller: The Golden Thread of Time). They seem to have been artistically impoverished and given to straight lines and angles.

The bottom line here is that they may not be extinct but are in hiding and are directing, through psychopathic men, the incredible multitudes of attacks on Homo sapiens and our civilization. Their goal is to again openly control the entire earth and reduce humans to computer electronically controlled genetically modified chattel, and this is already happening. Their visible proxies are: religions, secret societies, so called bloodlines, occult organizations and cults, criminal enterprises, subverted political organizations and governments. They seem to be without ethics or empathy and treat us as possessions, as their animals, and this certainly raises the issue of how we treat so called “dumb” animals. It is likely that the vast majority of men and women following their directions are unaware of their past or present existence.

The Mitochondrial Eve Map shows the paths of human dispersal from Southern Africa. How did we travel? We might have traveled by ships owned and navigated by the earth mappers, and as some large brained Hominids had large incisors and canine teeth but no molars (obligate carnivores?), some of us might have sailed in the fresh meat locker.

From Brien Foerster. His book: The Enigma of Cranial Deformation is extremely important.

Where did we, Homo sapiens, come from? If the theory of large brain hominids controlling Homo sapiens holds up, it is likely that over a period of tens of thousands of years the male large brains copulated with the human, or precursor human, females. This would have been inter-species mating (e.g.: donkey mule) producing sterile off spring, but if this went on for 75,000 years or more, strange, improbable, pregnancies, might have occurred. Would the large brain hominids have abstained from copulating with the two-legged chattel? What do you think? There is evidence in the legend of aliens landing on earth to mine gold and creating a slave race with the earth females, which is most improbable. There are gold mines in the region in question and we are here, out of Africa.

One thing is absolutely certain:

THE DNA OF THE SKULLS, SOME OF WHICH HAVE REMINANTS OF SKIN AND RED HAIR, MUST BE STUDIED, AND THE SKULLS MUST BE EXAMINED AND DESCRIBED USING THE CAREFUL METHODS R. BROOM USED IN HIS 1918 STUDY OF HOMO CAPENSIS AND EXTENDED WITH MODERN TECHNOLOGY. THEN WE WILL KNOW.

Much happened many tens of thousands of years before the Biblical Era in this South Eastern African location. I find working with the Southern Africa maps confusing.

I think it likely that these rough stone silos without openings for doors were designed to contain two-legged chattel. Pull the inner ladder up and they are confined. The rough stone walls would have been plastered over with a plaster material, washed away after thousands of years, which would have made climbing without corners difficult. Why has this region not been thoroughly investigated by professional archaeologists?

Temples of the African Gods

My new book "Temples Of The African Gods" is now in print and will be available in South Africa, UK and USA from about Feb 2010. It is a follow on to It deals extensively with the ancient stone ruins, their link to Adam's Calendar (Enki's Calendar), the ancient roads, terraces, ancient mines, and what we now call the FIRST PEOPLE who lived on Earth. It presents evidence that this was the first civilisation, from where the Sumerians and Egyptians got most of their knowledge and symbolism.

Map below shows the location of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State. This is where the Boer (Farmer) War was fought.

THE BOER (FARMER) WARS

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Boer_Wars

During the later stages of the Second Boer War, the British pursued the policy of rounding up and isolating the Boer civilian population in concentration camps, one of the earliest uses of this method by modern powers. The wives and children of Boer guerrillas were sent to these camps, which had poor hygiene and little food. Many of the children in these camps died, as did some of the adults.^[1]

A British journalist, WT Stead, wrote:

Every one of these children who died as a result of the halving of their rations, thereby exerting pressure onto their family still on the battle-field, was purposefully murdered. The system of half rations stands exposed, stark and unashamedly as a cold-blooded deed of state policy employed with the purpose of ensuring the surrender of men whom we were not able to defeat on the field.^[2]

http://www.ihr.org/jhr/v18/v18n3p14_Weber.html

During a speech in Parliament on February 18, 1901, David Lloyd George quoted from a letter by a British officer: "We move from valley to valley, lifting cattle and sheep, burning and looting, and turning out women and children to weep in despair beside the ruin of their once beautiful homesteads." Lloyd George commented: "It is a war not against men, but against women and children."note 30

Deadly epidemics -- typhoid, dysentery and (for children) measles -- broke out in the camps and spread rapidly. During one three week period, an epidemic at the camp at Brandfort killed nearly a tenth of the entire inmate population. In the Mafeking camp, at one point there were 400 deaths a month, most of them caused by typhoid, which worked out to an annual death rate of 173 percent.

Altogether the British held 116,572 Boers in their South African internment camps -- that is, about a fourth of the entire Boer population -- nearly all of them women and children. After the war, an official government report concluded that 27,927 Boers had died in the camps -- victims of disease, undernourishment and exposure. Of these, 26,251 were women and children, of whom 22,074 were children under the age of 16. Among the nearly 115,000 black Africans who were also interned in the British camps, nearly all of whom were tenant workers and servants of the better-off Boers, it is estimated that more than 12,000 died.note 26

What was the Boer War all about? Boer is a word for farmer, It was the Farmer War and the British traveled thousands of miles to put Farmer women and children in concentration camps where they became sick and died. Why? The War was pushed by financial interests, but most British were against it. Sound familiar?

What could have driven the British to do this?

I will postulate a reason for this war based on the facts I have described. The wars were fought in the Transvaal and the Orange Free State, essentially the same region where Homo capensis and the great ancient civilization were located. I think that this senseless brutal war against Farmer women and children was perpetrated to destroy the Farmers and prevent them from stumbling across archeological evidence that a large brain hominid civilization had existed there. Homo capensis is hidden, the large skulls of Paracas Peru are hidden in plain sight. Someone does not want Homo sapiens to know about this?

The Issue of Interspecies Dating
X Rated Theory of Homosapiens (Big Brains and Homo sapien precursor females)

A considerable effort is being mounted to bring Extra Terrestrials, Annunaki, ET and human mating to South Africa. See below.

Scientist and researcher Michael Tellinger discussed the mysterious Anunnaki, as well as evidence in support of Zecharia Sitchin's revolutionary work showing that these ET beings created us using pieces of their own DNA, in order to mine gold on Earth for them. "The more work I do on these beings called the Anunnaki, the more mysterious and also the more devious they become...they are not necessarily what we think they are," he remarked. It's turning out that where they came from-- Nibiru, could actually represent a star system rather than a planet, with its sun being a brown dwarf, he reported. Further, the gold they were extracting from Earth could have been used for a device that concealed their activities from other consciousnesses even more advanced than themselves, he theorized.

The Anunnaki didn't want these other consciousnesses to know they were intervening with life on Earth, he continued. They were also creating a white powder or monatomic form of gold that they became obsessed with, as it gave them immortality and allowed them to clad their home planet and shield it from view, just like they were doing with Earth, Tellinger posited. He believes there are still remnants or hybrids of the Anunnaki on our planet, and beyond their influence on ancient cultures, it's quite possible they're still manipulating or controlling our governments and countries, particularly financial aspects, in a negative fashion.

As evidence for the Anunnaki's presence, he cited the massive number of ancient stone circles in South Africa. The sites have no doors or entrances, indicating they were not dwellings but rather served as sources of energy or power plants, he stated. The stones had specific sound properties that allowed them to ring like bells or resonate at high frequencies, and sound is a primordial source of energy, Tellinger said, adding that the sites were connected together by channels. This is real physical and scientific proof of how energy can be created out of sound, and Mother Earth (or Gaia) can give us free energy from the sound that Gaia generates," he suggested.

Tellinger gives a lot of information about the stone ruins of the ancient southern Africa civilization but I think his interpretations are wrong.

So where did we come from, how did we evolve? It is logical to investigate this issue and this region. The fact that this region is ignored is significant. We must consider the possibility that precursors of Homo sapiens were chattel confined in the stone silos, when they/we weren't working in the gold mines and vast fields. The rough stonewalls would have been plastered to discourage climbing out. Would the male owners of the chattel restrained themselves from molesting the females? We all know the answer to that. This would have been interspecies mating, which is known to usually produce sterile offspring, if the mating produces any offspring at all. But, the genetic dice would have been cast millions of times over a time period of 75,000 to 200,000 years. It would seem anything might have happened and probably did.

Interspecies mating is more common than we thought Especially if you think no one is looking.

What sort of a cat am I?

The photo below should increase your believe in the virtues of interspecies dating.

Are we Hybrids?

Could we be hybrids of Homo capensis (and other big brain Hominid species) and a Homo sapiens precursor? Could they/we have been created in the crucible of the ancient southern Africa civilization, where they/we were confined in the stone silos? This southern Africa area, where there are the remains of more than 100,000 stone silos, would have been very harsh with the distinct possibility that, as well as being slaves, they/we were eaten. The dentition of the mathematically inclined Cone Heads indicates that they were primarily carnivores. The treasured human characteristics of empathy, compassion, kindness, and love, would have conferred a survival advantage on those possessing these traits in the brutal crucible of southern Africa. These traits are very much under attack in our bizarre psychopath, and corporation infested world.
